

Breaking Point

Celldweller

What can you hear inside your head?
Is it all the words that you can not say?
Does it fill you with regret
Or do you feel some things are best left unsaid?

It's all I can do, so I excuse
Everything that comes around
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon
Far too long I've seen you abuse
Everything you ever had
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon

(...fills with static, my mind fills with...)
My mind fills with static
'Cause I tried to hide it
This mind is filling with static, you see
The breaking point is coming soon, the truth will set you free

The truth will set you free-e-e-e-e
The truth will set you free-e-e-e-e

It's all I can do, so I excuse
Everything that comes around
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon
Far too long I've seen you abuse
Everything you ever had
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon

(My mind fills with static)
'Cause I tried to hide it)
(My mind fills with static)
'Cause I tried to hide it)
(My mind fills with static!)
'Cause I tried to hide it!)

(...fills with static, my mind fills with...)
My mind fills with static
'Cause I tried to hide it
This mind is filling with static, you see
The breaking point is coming soon, the truth will set you free

The truth will set you free-e-e-e-e

It's all I can do, so I excuse
Everything that comes around
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon
Far too long I've seen you abuse
Everything you ever had
What I would give to speak the truth
The breaking point is coming soon

The truth will set you free-e-e-e-e
