

Take Me Home

Celtic Thunder

I sit here thinking
As the sun is sinking
Over the mountain
And the dry, dusty ground

As the night is falling
I start recalling
The nights
In my own town

I see the faces
In familiar places
I hear the music
That they played way back then

My heart rejoices
As I hear the voices
Calling me
Home again

Home
Oh take me home
Oh to the people
I left behind
Oh to the love
I know I'll find
Oooh take me home

As the sky is burning
My mind is turning
To the cold winter evenings
By my own fire side

So far away now
But any day now
I'll sail
On the morning tide

Home
Oh take me home
Oh to the people
Oh to the love
I know I'll find
Oooh take me home

Take me home
Far across the sea
Home is where I long to be

Home
(Da da da da)
Oh take me home
(Da da da da)
Oh to the people
(Da da da da da)

(Da da da)
Oh to the love
(Da da da da)
I know I'll find
(Da da da da)
Oooh take me home
