

Do you hear the sound
Beating like a crowd?
Every single star seems to light up now
In these days of rain
Only you remain
Find me where horizons and stars collide

Over hills and highlands
I will take on your hands
In these steps forever
These hearts beat together
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands

I can feel your heat
Burning all retreat
No more looking back, with you I'm complete
To the deep blue sea
And for this precious seat
Take us where the raindrops and sun collide

Over hills and highlands
I will take on your hands
In these steps forever
These hearts beat together
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands

Higher, higher
We fly in skylands
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands

Over hills and highlands
I will take on your hands
Higher, higher
We fly in skylands
