

Moist Purple Skin

Centinex

Found dead sunken to the bottom of river, mummified from from top to bottom with blue plastic ropes Chained to a big block of concrete, all wrapped in layers and layers of plastic

I thought it was going to be my little secret, to take this knowledge of a missing body to my grave I thought that: All of my problems were taken care of, sunken to the bottom of the river and forever

Forgotten
Swollen beyond recognition

She is a result of a big misunderstanding,
I told her not to yell and tried to calm her down When both are afraid it's a sticky situation, it all happened fast, over in seconds

I was never never bothered of her sudden disappearance, I did never miss her or feel sorry for anything Probably her children were at home worried sickly, shit fucking happens, what can I say?
