

Presaging the End

Ceremony

Oh no
Things have never been worse
I try to change my life
But only end up worse
It's written with a sure hand
But so loath to speak
Another year in its grips
All night and no release
No, no, no, no

Presaging the end
Presaging the end
And then the moon one day over-full
Surrendering
Surrendering
You'll always be more
You'll always be more
You'll always be more alive yesterday
Surrounding me
Surrounding me
Presaging the end
Presaging the end

Beauty
Is to feel
A change in front of you
It comes
It comes
It comes so quickly
Then it leaves
Then it leaves
Quicker than it's seen
And it's so
Yeah it's so bittersweet
It's so bittersweet
That you bend
Around it
That you breathe
Into it
You feel adrift without it
Dying without it

Presaging the end
Presaging the end
And then the moon one day over-full
Surrendering
Surrendering
You'll always be more
You'll always be more
You'll always be more alive yesterday
Surrounding me
Surrounding me
Presaging the end
Presaging the end

Beauty
Is to feel

A change in front of you
And it comes
Yeah it comes
It comes so quickly
Then it leaves
Then it leaves
