

Paradise Lost

CETI

I can't find my peace
There is something missing from my life
No wishful dreams not even lies

Day after day
I see people, places all the same
They all drive me insane

Thinking of you
Have you ever been in my life?
Now you've forgotten our time

Looking for you again
And I realise that
I won't find such lips such eyes

I can't touch my dreams
Can't hold in my arms
I can't shed any tears, shed any tears
I'm too weak, I give up
The world before
Was my paradise lost
I'd never let you go, never let go
At any cost

I can't believe it's gone
You are no longer mine
But still I hope to meet you
Some other time some other life

I can't touch my dreams
Can't hold in my arms
I can't shed any tears, shed any tears
I'm too weak, I give up
The world before
Was my paradise lost
I'd never let you go, never let go
At any cost

The world before
Was my paradise lost
I'd never let you go, never let go
At any cost

Some other life...
