Shadow Of The Angel (life And The Throne)

You're looking forward, and you see your last day. You think about the life, but you life like a stone! No strenght - you break them. Silence in fear - hidden pain, You're going to the end, Will there still, anyone wait?

Life, Life, Life and the throne.

Like an angel's shadow, which you can't touch, Like a passing day, which you can't defeat, Like a furrows on the face, Reminds, that your time has passed away, You're going forward, into the bright space, Angels' shadows are waiting still - yeahh!.

Life, Life, Life and the throne.
