

Reason To Love

Chad Brownlee

I don't go all in, I'm one foot in and one foot out
Waitin' on a dead end every road that I go down
That shine in your smile lit me up and pulled me out
Of the shadow of a doubt when you came around

You give me a reason to love
Wide open as the skies up above
Baby, ain't it magic what the right kiss does
Sets fire to a feelin'
You give me a reason to love, love, love

Ain't no going back girl I've been captured by those eyes
Leave it to my heart to go and catch me by surprise
Don't want you off my lips, can't get you off my mind
Girl, you're the difference from livin' and comin' alive

You give me a reason to love
Wide open as the skies up above
Baby, ain't it magic what the right kiss does
Sets fire to a feelin'
You give me a reason to love

A reason to love, yeah

I've always had my reasons to run
But now I can't think of one

Cause you give me a reason to love
Wide open as the skies up above
Baby, ain't it magic what the right kiss does
Sets fire to a feelin'
You give me a reason to love
You give me a reason to love

Yeah, you're my reason to love
