

I Belong in Your Arms

Chairlift

Crossing my heart
Open wide
You're my crystal and clover
All of me, honestly
Is dedicated to hold you
Swear to god
Double know
What would you do if I stole you tonight?
Why waste time?

Because the world goes on without us
It doesn't matter what we do
All silhouettes with no regrets
When I'm melting into you
I belong in your arms
I belong in your arms

Feelings are good
Nothing to say
Just want my head on your shoulder
Banana split
Honestly
You're my remote controller
Between you and me
Suddenly
Something something something is on my mind

Because the world goes on without us
It doesn't matter what we do
All silhouettes with no regrets
When I'm melting into you
I belong in your arms
I belong in your arms

Because the world goes on without us
It doesn't matter what we do
All silhouettes with no regrets
When I'm melting into you
I belong in your arms
I belong in your arms
