

Ladies' Man

Chaka Khan

Well, I've heard of heartbreakers
But you take the cake
Ladies' man, ladies' man
You could charm the rattles off a rattlesnake
Ladies' man, ladies' man

Ladies bring it on over
When you give 'em a glance
They don't stand a chance
First, you unfold them
Then you pigeon-hole 'em
Ladies' man, ladies' man

Well it sure takes a lot of good-natured self control
When I'm so hot for you and you're so cold, so cold
Why do you keep on trying to make a man of me
Couldn't you just love me like you love cocaine?

Cocaine and base

Cross my heart I swear I'm not trying to trick you
No tricks
Ladies' man, ladies' man
It's just a straight ahead feeling I have for you
Nothing slick
Ladies' man, ladies' man

I guess you learn to refuse what you think you can't handle
You're acting like a vandal
Wrecking the dream at the first bad scene
Ladies' man, ladies' man [repeat]
Look out I know you're just another ladies' man
