

I'm...
Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin'
Walkin' through these awesome days
Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin'
Walkin' through them come what may

On a boulevard, a little child
Is playing games and running wild
Hair is a tangle of dirt and curls
Without a single care or worry in the world

You see, I'm walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin'
(Baby, can't you see me)
Walkin' through these awesome days
Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin'
Walkin' through them come what may

How I love to kick off my shoes
Get my feet off the heat of the street
Sink my toes in the rich black earth
It gives me such a feelin' of joy and rebirth

I see a catwalk, a jaywalk
Down along the boardwalk
World passin' by like a dance
Lovers move to a secret rhythm
And I'd swear they was lost in a...
I'd swear they was lost in a trance

I can't help it, I've got to raise my voice, whoo!
Get up above the clamor, get up above the noise
Planes are for the sky, cars rush right on by
But walkin' seems so natural
Where the landscape meets the eye

You see, I'm walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin'
(Baby, can't you see me)
Walkin' through these awesome days
Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', yeah
Walkin' through them come what may
(You can find me)

Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', yeah
Walkin' through these awesome days
(Every day and every night)
Walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', walkin', yeah
Walkin' through them come what may, doo-doo, wop...
