

Frequency

Chance Peña

Hey words are worse than violence
So I'm sitting in silence
I just need space
My head is shaking I'm bound to break
And I don't have the patience to conversate

'Cause I feel hollow, hollow
And I don't want to follow, follow
So I'll be tuning out the frequency of everyone surrounding me

Oh I didn't see you standing there
And if I had I wouldn't have cared
Just go away
I'm jumping to the deepest part
Connecting my mind and heart

To kill the static, static
Break it like a habit, habit
I'm tuning into the frequency of the realness inside of me

Float away
Float away now
Float away
Float away now
Float away
Float away now
Float away
Float away now (floa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oat away)

Float away
Float away now
Before I break
Before I break down
Float away
Float away now
Before I break
Before I break down

Float away
Float away now
Before I break
Before I break down
Float away
Float away now
Before I break
Before I break down

Because I feel hollow
I don't wanna follow
Try to kill the static
Break it like a habit

Because I feel hollow
I don't wanna follow
Break it like a habit
