

Peacemaker

Chance Peña

I can tell you've been carrying a heavy soul
And part of you wants to hide and let it all go
Couldn't fake it if you tried
Oh, and heaven knows
It's hard work practicing smiles

You've fallen a ways down
Can't see the sky, baby, you need patience
You know I'll give you time
Know you hate it, but love it's alright
Let me wipe those tears and lift that weight off your mind

Revelations
Contemplated, changed your mind
Took your time
There's peace in making
And always changing your own mind
Baby, open your eyes
Oh, and empty your heart
