

Though We Must Go Without

Chance Peña

Sunlight on our minds
Wondering what comes after
We finally close our eyes
Will we stop running from disaster

Your heart's beating faster now
There's no fighting this alone

And though we must go without
The joy that has always held our hand
Through all the pain and doubt
I made it safe and sound my friends
I'd do it again, beginning to end

Can we be at peace
Knowing we won't finish
All of everything
Love's the only witness

Your heart's beating faster now
There's no fighting this alone

And though we must go without
The joy that has always held our hand
Through all the pain and doubt
I made it safe and sound my friends
I'd do it again, beginning to end
