

Our House (Skit)

Chance the Rapper

Hello?

Yeah, girl, I'm still at this damn wedding

I know, I know

Shit, divorces don't even take this long

Hey, slow down

Ooh, hold on, girl, let me call you back

Ahh, they done left the little one

Hey, pretty girl

Did them little bad butt kids leave you behind, baby?

(Um)

Hmm?

Well, that is a very pretty dress you have on

And a very pretty doll

My daughter used to have a doll just like that

I used to have dolls at my mommy's house and my daddy's house

Now I only have one house and all my dolls are all together

And when my daddy wakes up with me at my house

And asks what toy I wanna play with

I say, "All of them"
