

Hello Goodbye

Chanel West Coast

Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky

Now I top it and you watch it
I gave my heart away too easy, no I'm too cautious
But I got new options, a few options
You try to tell me that you sorry but that's too often, yeah
Hello, goodbye, I'm too fly
This shit cold, my wrists ice
I don't got time for the lies
What's the price? I'll buy your life

Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky

I'm out, so what are we talkin' 'bout?
Ima fly off in my spaceship in the middle of this conversation
How does my album I wrote, put old boy on mic too
Feelin' hopeful, feelin' ruthless
Feelin' I'm onto some new shit
Feelin' I'm onto some new shit
But I got you new, got a new suit and a new twist
Look, she was a quarantine thing, well really I don't know
But after this pandemic, what? We gonna see a show
She say I'm the next to blow, yeah
In my head I heard this befo'
I just might shake you off
Now I see I'm on green, like I golf
I got a couple of houses in the States, I just might chill in my loft
8-9 to a boss, always learn from my loss
I got a recipe when I walk, my specialty is the sauce
Keep some baddies in a drawer
Find me in the hills, new house

Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice

Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I told you once, I'll tell you twice
Hello, goodbye
You were my life
I'm takin' off into the sky
