

No Plans

Chanel West Coast

I ain't got no plans tonight
Maybe eating dinner by the candle light
Hit the club and do that little dance you like
Lucky if I end up in ya hands tonight
Cuz I ain't got no plans
I ain't got no plans tonight
I ain't got no plans
Nah, I ain't got no plans tonight

Pick up when I hit you up
Benz or the Porsche
Let me pick you up
Late night
Lets go for a drive
Let me see what's up
Date night
Make some reservations
Let you eat it up
Flip a coin
If it land on head
Then you spend the bucks
Body language
We could talk when we silent
Know you not my man
But I'm loving how you trying
Play my favorite song
When I'm with you we be vibing
We soak up the sun
In the sand on a island
Tannin oil rub it on my legs
Get the massaging
Telling you my body
Feel like I'm on high end
Feeling like we flying
The views and the timing
Chemistry like science
I'm happy that we found it

Can you keep a secret
You could hit my phone
Baby, tell me that you need it
Hope you got them pictures
I sent you, don't you leak it
One zero zero
That's the only way I keep it
You could have my time
If I say it
Then I mean it

I ain't got no plans tonight
Hit the club and do that little dance you like
Lucky if I end up in ya hands tonight
I ain't got no plans

If you catching feelings
Lemme know
Cause I been catching feelings
I just hope it's mutual
Can't keep it to myself
Nah I just thought that you should know
Let me whisper in ya ear
Tell you baby its a go
I'm lucky that you patient
Cause I can't see me with someone that's basic
I post you on my story
In my DM
They be hating
Salty cause we goals
Gotta ask em how it's tasting
Tryna see more places
Take more vacations
Mansions
Middle of the party
We be dancing
You tell me that I'm bad
Then I tell you that you handsome
Random
I'm falling for you
But I see it's tandem
They mad
Got these hoes
Throwing tantrums

Can you keep a secret
You could hit my phone
Baby, tell me that you need it
I sent you, don't you leak it
One zero zero
That's the only way I keep it
You could have my time
If I say it
Then I mean it

I ain't got no plans tonight
Hit the club and do that little dance you like
Lucky if I end up in ya hands tonight
I ain't got no plans
