

All Is Not Gone

Changing Faces

I still feel your presence
Though you're not around
Reminiscing on our ups and our downs
I still feel your presence
Though you're not near
Looking out of my windowpane wishing you were here

If I had one wish
I would wish that you were here
'Cause when I look over my shoulder
I could've sworn that you were there

'Cause all is not gone
All is not gone
The thought of you and me still lingers on
All is not gone (No)
All is not gone (Oh, no)
I'll pick the pieces up and carry on

I wake up each morning
Calling your name
Knowing that I'll never see you smile again
God as my witness
I'll be strong
Because I know the things you want from me
So I'll just carry on

Oh, if I had one wish
I would wish that you were here
'Cause when I look over my shoulder
I could've sworn that you were there

'Cause all is not gone
All is not gone
The thought of you and me still lingers on
All is not gone
All is not gone
I'll pick the pieces up and carry on

Oooh, I look to the skies to make it better
I gotta pull together (Ooh yeah)
My heart, your love is forever

All is not gone
All is not gone
All is not gone
All is not gone
All is not gone
All is not gone
I'll pick the pieces up
Oh, I'll pick the pieces up
I'll pick the pieces up and carry on
