

A Different Light

Chanté Moore

Feat/Jojo Hailey

-1-

I see you in a different light candle light, moon light I see you in a different way through different eyes, and it's so nice I see you like i've never seen you before the way I wanna see you, much more oh tonight, tonight

I see you in a different way

we were just friends, that's how it started you told me your secrets, i told you mine you were always there with a shoulder to lean on anytime now something's changed, nothing's the same you're here beside me

-repeat-1-

-3-(jojo hailey)- you were the one I'd always turn to the one I could talk to, the one I could trust who'd of ever dreamed we'd be here together making love the sweetest surprise has come to my life you're here beside me

repeat-1-

-4-

when did your kisses get so sweet baby, it's such a sweet surprise to me to look into your eyes and its so nice
I see you like i've never seen you before oh tonight, tonight i see you in a different light
