

I See You In A Different Light

Chanté Moore

I see you in a different light, candlelight, moonlight
I see you in a different way, through different eyes, and it's
so nice

We were just friends, that's how it started
You told me your secrets and I told you mine
You were always there with a shoulder to lean on anytime (ohhh)
Now something's changed, nothing's the same (no, no)
You're here beside me and...

I see you in a different light, candlelight, moonlight
so nice
I see you like I've never seen you before
The way I wanna see you much more
Oh tonight, tonight I see you in a different light

You were the one I'd always turn to The one I could talk to, baby, the one I could trust
Who'd have ever dreamed we would be here together making love
The sweetest surprise has come to my life
You're here beside me and...

I see you in a different light, candlelight, moonlight
so nice
I see you like I've never seen you before
The way I wanna see you much more
Oh tonight, tonight I see you in a different light

When did your kisses get so sweet baby
It's such a sweet surprise to me
To look into your eyes (ohhhh)
And see you in a different light, candlelight, moonlight
I see you in a different way, through different eyes, and it's
so nice
I see you like I've never seen you before
The way I wanna see you much more
Whoa, tonight, tonight, I see you in a different light
Candlelight, moonlight
I see you, I see you baby
Like I've never seen you before
(I see you baby, I see you baby)
