

Love The Woman

Chanté Moore

My lips were made for kissing you
My eyes, to watch you watching me
My hands, to touch secret places
My hips, to keep time with the beat of our heart
Send you out of here to ecstasy, baby

(Tonight) Love the woman
(Tonight) Kiss the woman
(Tonight) Touch the woman
Touch me, love me
(Tonight) Love the woman
(Tonight) Kiss the woman
(Tonight) Touch the woman

My bed, to lay you soft and warm
My oil, to slide between you and me
My mood, sexy, hot, sensuality
My red light, to see you touching me
Send you out of here to ecstasy, baby

(Tonight) Love the woman
(Tonight) Kiss the woman
(Tonight) Touch the woman
Touch me, love me
(Tonight) Love the woman
(Tonight) Kiss the woman
(Tonight) Touch the woman

Now when I move to the left (move with me)
When I shift to the right (groove with me)
And hold me tight (stay with me)
When the mood is right (go with me)
When I move to the left (move with me)
When I shift to the right (groove with me)
Then hold me tight (stay with me)
When it's right (go with me)
Now break me down

Lips - kiss me
Eyes - watch me
Hands - touch me (yes)
(Touch me) My bed
Oil (Tonight, tonight, tonight)
Sweat (I need you, baby)

Love the woman (love me)
Kiss the woman (kiss me)
Touch the woman (touch me)
Hold me, baby, love me
Love the woman (hold me)
Kiss the woman (kiss me, kiss me)
Touch the woman (ooh, love me, love me, love me)
Groove with me (groove with me)
Groove with me (baby, groove with me)
Stay with me (oh, baby, go with me)
(Come on, move with me) Move with me
(Groove with me) Groove with me

Stay with me (stay with me)
Go with me (with me, darling babe)

Love the woman tonight
Touch this woman tonight
Love me, touch me
Tonight, tonight
I'm your tonight
Feel the music, baby
