

On His Mind

Chanté Moore

I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Yeah I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Everyday, every hour, every second, every minute
Every single thought, I'll be in it
I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind

In the morning I wake up
And caught up with or no makeup
And the natural life is there
This game of love is easy just to lay out
Everyday I'm on his remembering
He's similar with crazy out driving insane, yeah
And when we get together we be losing track of time
All day, all night, I'll be always on his mind

I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Yeah I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Everyday, every hour, every second, every minute
Every single thought, I'll be in it
I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind

[?]
I've been loving all these kisses 'cause his lips are so soft
Looking in his eyes I get lost
And everything else is a [?]
It don't matter who he close to
Checking on his bed like he's supposed to, yeah yeah
'Cause he knows that I Miss Go to
And I got his wheel spinning like some babies on a six two
How many ways can I say
It's not just a faith, he wants me to stay
I'm always on his brain

I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Yeah I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind
Everyday, every hour, every second, every minute
Every single thought, I'll be in it
I'll be always on his mind
I'll be always on his mind

When he go to sleep with the moonlight
Or in the morning with the sunshine
I'll be on his mind
Right before his dinner or his lunchtime
You can met I
I'll be on his mind
And right before he leave the house
I'll be on his mind
Coming in or living now

I'll be on his mind
Whether in the East Coast Time or in the West Coast Time
You know [?] must say

I'll be always on his mind
Yeah I'll be always on his mind
