Suit up, I'm diving in
In a world full of villains
I knew I was crazy
Counter and strike, punch it up
Stop for a minute, minute, minute
I win them all
The confined world is too small for me
Not the first time
Taking a break from work time, uh
Etch it in harder, later at night
Ride the thrill ride
I'm already hyped up, thumbs up
Imagine it, going crazy

(La, la, la, la)
I really, I really, I really shouldn't
(La, la, la, la)
I really, I really, I really, I-I

After a flashy action
A dizzying kiss ending
Feels like reality, not a dream
I'm falling, I'm just falling
Believe me this evening
After waking up from a dream
Only the last scene remains
Then I'm back again, I'm back again

I really do my best, it's showtime
A simulation for you, blood is running hot
Our ending scene will look different
I show up at the critical moment, what villainy
Up and down on this elevator ride
Me and the alien, what's going on, shh, it's another emergency
Let's end it, stop it twice
But they bark and I bite
Right now, the hero is me, this is the epilogue

(La, la, la, la)
I really, I really, I really shouldn't
(La, la, la, la)
I really, I really, I really, I really, ah

After a flashy action
A dizzying kiss ending
Feels like reality, not a dream
I'm falling, I'm just falling
Believe me this evening
After waking up from a dream

Only the last scene remains
Then I'm back again, I'm back again

I really, I really, I really should've known
I really, I really, I really should've known
I really, I really, I really should've known
I really, I really, I really, I really, ah

After a perfect action
A sweet kiss ending
In a ruined dream
I'm falling, I'm just falling
Believe me this evening
Something I never even dreamed of
I reshoot the last scene
Then I'm back again, I'm back again
