In my small room
Crouching my shoulders
Time keeps repeating itself, yeah
I think it's a little difficult
In the midst of the thick darkness
The clock has stopped ticking
Staring at me blankly, forcing me to smile
Honestly, it's all getting a bit tiring

Yet again I find myself today in the same place
Still in this place
Is it alright to stop like this?

When even small dreams feel too heavy
When there's even no time to take a sip of warmth
When there is no time to spare
When I crouch down and the farthest, I can see are my toes
It's okay, just stay like that for a while
We will be fine, simply just like this

Like this, like this
We will be fine, just like this

The shadow I cast is a lonely one
Familiar faces, slow footsteps
Even the future we were meant to share
Disappears somewhere
I am at a dead end with a wall blocking me
Once more, dragging my drained body back to my room
Lying down with the worries that come rushing in

Yet again I find myself today in the same place
Still in this place
Can I go any further?

When even small dreams feel too heavy
When there's even no time to take a sip of warmth
When there is no time to spare
When I crouch down and the farthest, I can see are my toes
It's okay, just stay like that for a while
We will be fine, simply just like this

Like this, like this
We will be fine, simply just like this
Like this, like this
We will be fine, simply just like this

I will smile
When I will look back at these in the end

When my scattered dreams greet me again
When your season brings me warmth
Certainly, it'll come, my very own moment of glory
So, I am going to stay like this for a while
We will be fine, just like this (Yeah)

Good enough, good enough
We will be fine, just like this
As is, as is
We will be fine, just like this
