

In This Place

Chaos Chaos

The way he's so unmemorable
And I am too
Pushes me into something
Some kind of lake
Of dark, lit, warm and unexpected
Familiar place

He like a child in trouble
He knows it, and I do too
When you're somewhere unfamiliar
A shadowy huge mountain
Of possibility in my mind

You're so wrong, you're takin' over
You're so godly takin' over
You're no longer takin' over
You're so wrong, you're taken over
Takin' over
Takin' over
Taken over

Even the swiftest cleanses
You say you are my fate
You would take everything
You find a way to stay

You take it back
You take it back
You take it back
You take it back

You take it back
You take it back
You take it back
You take it back

You take it back
You take it back
You take it back
You take it, you
