

Burn My Eyes

Chouseum

Burn

I feel your bones

I feel your brain

Breakin up the reality

I'm the viewer, I'm your pain

I think I'll be born again

I recognize this blackening

To solace you it makes me sing

I'm the leader of your defence

So let me do it again

You want to hide me in your life

To think I'll dissapear

You can try to burn my eyes

But you'll stay mine

You want to hide me in your life

To think I'll dissapear

You can try to burn my eyes

But you'll stay mine

No one can understand

I'm the only who can do something

Let me out, let me out

And just for you I'll make them pay

I'll make them pay I'll make them pay

I'll make them pay

You want to hide me in your life

To think I'll dissapear

You can try to burn my eyes

But you'll stay mine

You want to hide me in your life

To think I'll dissapear

You can try to burn my eyes

But you'll stay mine

I hear you

I can hear you
