

Feel

Chaoseum

I spend my night to see you sleeping
In silence I hear you breathing
And on your side, reminds me more
I'm not the same man anymore
Can you hear me
Can you feel me

When I kiss your tender lips, can you feel, can you feel me?
When I say love you everyday, can you hear, can you hear me?
Our love is for eternity, can you trust, can you trust me?
And in the dark I touch your heart

The upper window let's the wind through and makes me
Believe that your hair's moving, when my hand pauses on you
But, that's not why our bed is so cold

When I kiss your tender lips, can you feel, can you feel me?
When I say love you everyday, can you hear, can you hear me?
Our love is for eternity, can you trust, can you trust me?
And in the dark I touch your heart

Can you hear me
Can you feel me
I take it back I wish it all
I should have left
Trust my soul came out of my body
Now I'm here with you until your death
See the light in the dark as you save me

Our love is for eternity, can you trust, can you trust me?
And in the dark I touch your heart

When I kiss your tender lips, can you feel, can you feel me?
When I say love you everyday, can you hear, can you hear me?
Our love is for eternity, can you trust, can you trust me?
And in the dark I touch your heart
