

First Step To Hell

Chauseum

Forgive the steps I've taken
For all I have forsaken
Listen, maybe I was blind
Forgive the vows I've broken
For all the words, unspoken
Due to all those crimes

The gates have been calling my name

Forgive the love I've been faking
For all the hearts I've been breaking
Listen, I never felt alright
Forgive the souls I've been choking
For all the dead I've been walking
My evil shows of night

The sky has been falling
By the demons yell
The gates have been calling my name
For the first step to hell

Forgive I can't reverse
I'm caged in all that curse
Listen, maybe I was blind
Forgive me for my fate
For all my sins and hate
I'm ready for this ride

The sky has been falling
By the demons yell
The gates have been calling my name
For the first step to hell

There is no way back
There is no way back
There is no way back
There is no way back

The sky has been falling
By the demons yell
The gates have been calling my name
For the first step to hell

The sky has been falling
By the demons yell
The gates have been calling my name
For the first step to hell
