

What If

Chaoseum

A new feeling so distracting
I feel myself falling
Am I bleeding am I fading
I see good times coming
I feel this new beginning
I'm here just let me in

What if I have to disappear
Know that you made me feel so alive
And much more than that
If I had a reason to live here
It was for you to be mine
Just to be mine

I was walking like a ghost
But I'm not scared anymore
Can you feel it
My heartbeat
I want you so hard mi amor
In your bedroom
Against your door
Wherever it will be a big storm

What if I have to disappear
Know that you made me feel so alive
And much more than that
If I had a reason to live here
It was for you to be mine
Just to be mine
If it makes you cry and leaves you bruised
Live for me till our next life
I will wait for you

Since then I've been hooked
You made me a fool
But I like to touch your little hooo
Your moans are so cool
My dear

You're the only one that I can blame
No weakness can stop my flame
I hear you breathe
And you touch my back so wet
We are so real
I can feel it between your legs

What if I have to disappear
Know that you made me feel so alive
And much more than that
If I had a reason to live here
It was for you to be mine
Just to be mine
If it makes you cry and leaves you bruised
Live for me till our next life
I will wait for you
