

All Things Considered

Chaparelle

All things considered, I'm doing fine
I got my own business that I gotta mind
No, I ain't complaining, it's never been my style
It takes a strong woman to look at you and smile

3 AM call in the morning
He's involved, the same old story
He keeps doin' things I ask him not to do
He's breakin' in and breakin' out, but never breakin' through

All things considered, I'm doing fine
The best thing he showed me was where to draw the line
No, I ain't complaining, it's never been my style
It takes a strong woman to look at you and smile

Got to know the man I married
And I've carried all that I can carry
If I could talk to my younger self today
I'd say, "Find yourself an older man who can lead the way"

All things considered, I'm doing fine
I got my left hand and a bottle of wine
No, I ain't complaining, it's never been my style
It takes a strong woman to look at you and smile

To look at you and smile
To look at you and smile
To look at you and smile
