

WOW

Chapel

I don't really mind
Wasting all my time
Window shoppin' at night
Oh, I try but
She don't care about
My shoes or my health
She just wants me right now
But I

Wanna find love with a girl like you
Want a big house with a girl like you
But you are never there, says "it's all on you"
It's all on you, it's all on you?

Like wow no shade
But you play
Me almost everyday
We act like it's okay
Like wow so rude
But it's you
Who never makes a move
Guess you're just too damn cool

I know what you like
Cheese board, fancy wine
I could be there in five
Cause I

Wanna find love with a girl like you
Want a big house with a girl like you
But you are never there, says "it's all on you"
It's all on you, it's all on you?

Like wow no shade
But you play
Me almost everyday
We act like it's okay
Like wow so rude
But it's you
Who never makes a move
Guess you're just too damn cool

I don't really mind
Wasting all my time
Wasting all my time
