

Read & Make Out

Chappell Roan

I thought I felt the mega-quake
In Silver Lake
Grabbed a woman's hand by mistake
I wanna read and make out
And learn magic tricks
I might disappear just for kicks

And I
I'm the country hick that's making you feel it
Swear my eyes fell off from batting my lashes, I
I shove my love back down in my pocket
And I

Can we stay in my fantasy?
In my jewelry box, where I never leave?
In your deck of cards
I'm the queen of hearts
Will you shuffle me? Spread me apart?

Don't let me in, don't let me in
Imaginary friend

Either I'm just too young
Or I'm just too manic
Feel like holding a gun
To the planet
And I'm feeling dread
Watching your lava lamp
Just thinking about the end

And I
I'm the Southern belle pissing myself again
'Cause I'm way too high up in Laurel Canyon, I
And I hate it here but you make it better
And I

Can we stay in my fantasy?
In my jewelry box, where I never leave?
In your deck of cards
I'm the queen of hearts
Will you shuffle me? Spread me apart?

This feels like my favorite book
On the very last page, where I never look
And I pretend it'll never end
So I close it up and I start again

Don't let me in
Don't let me in
Don't let me in
Don't let me in
Imaginary

But I just wanna read and make out
I just wanna read and make out
I just wanna read and make out (Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
I just wanna read and make out (Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)

I just wanna read and make out (Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
(Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
Oh, ah-ha, ha, ah-ha
Can we make out? Can we make out? (Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
I wanna make out, I wanna make out (Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
(Oh, oh-oh, oh, oh-oh)
