

Epitome of Beauty

Charice

I am glad to know about you
I am glad to know that this is true

When I look into your eyes
When I kiss your lips I cry

You are the epitome of beauty
You are the epitome of beauty
Nobody can replace you, or deny you
I'm saying this 'cause I love you
You are the epitome of beauty
Beautiful to me

Oh, oh

I am far beyond thankful
For everything you've done for me oh I am grateful

You rescued me from all the sadness that I had
So let me hold your hand and kiss your lips and say

You are the epitome of beauty
You are the epitome of beauty
Nobody can replace you, or deny you
I'm saying this 'cause I love you
You are the epitome of beauty
Beautiful to me
Oh, beautiful to me

Ooohhh...
Beautiful, you are beautiful to me
Beautiful, you know who you are
Beautiful... beautiful... beautiful
You are beautiful to me
Beautiful... beautiful... beautiful
You are beautiful

When I look into your eyes
When I kiss your lips I cry
You are the epitome

You are the epitome of beauty
Nobody can replace you, or deny you
I'm saying this 'cause I love you
Beautiful to me (you are the epitome of beauty)
Beautiful to me
