

That Time Again

Charles Wesley Godwin

I'm drawing blanks in my mind
I indulge in dry wine
Verses jump off my pages all of the time
First you're hearing of me
I'm hearing of you
Hey, nice to meet y'all
How do you do?

Well, I hope you're just fine
And not on your last dime
Hope this show puts you up high on cloud nine
If you walk out of here upset and mad
In no time at all, I'll be checking wanted ads

Oh, oh, it's that time again
Us, like-minded ramblers, all gather herein
We've got yin and the yang
Rhymes are the game
We're jacked up on drinking
Good songs are to blame

Oh, oh, it's that time again
It's a gathering of kin
Oh, that time again

Songs hitting right
Blues outta sight
You can let down your guard
You've got the green light

Oh, oh, it's that time again
Us, like-minded ramblers, all gather herein
We've got yin and the yang
Rhymes are the game
We're jacked up on drinking
Good songs are to blame

Oh, oh, it's that time again
It's a gathering of kin
Oh, that time again

Oh, oh, it's that time again
It's a gathering of kin
Oh, that time again
