

Rainin' In My Heart

Charley Crockett

It's just a-rainin', baby
Rainin' in my heart
It's steady rainin', sugar
Rainin' in my heart
Don't you know it's such a shame
For you and I ever to part?

I'm gonna write a letter
Tell her how I feel
I'm gonna write a letter, baby
Show her how I feel
I ain't had much schoolin'
But I'm sure gonna make my appeal

I'm goin' to Houston
That's where they play the game
And I'm goin' to Houston, darlin'
That's where they play the game
I'll be gone come tomorrow
Ooh, yeah, if it's all the same

It's just a-rainin', baby
Rainin' in my heart
It's steady rainin', sugar
Rainin' in my heart
Don't you know it's such a shame
For you and I ever to part?

And as the lonely tear drops fall
I hear her whisper comin' in the hall
Ooh, and I'll be missing you
All of my sorrow just a-tumblin' down
I don't know what to do
Ever since you ain't been around

It's just a-rainin', baby
Rainin' in my heart
It's steady rainin', sugar
Rainin' in my heart
Don't you know it's such a shame
For you and I ever to part?
Don't you know it's such a shame
For you and I ever to part?
Don't you know it's such a shame
For you and I ever to part?
