

Blue Ridge Mountains Turnin' Green

Charley Pride

Blue Ridge Mountains turnin' green
Wanna go home again to see my mountain friends
Springtime opens up my heart
Makes me want to share that good ole mountain air

Life's so young and free for all
For those who answer the Blue Ridge Mountain call
Blue Ridge Mountains turnin' green
I wanna go home again to see my mountain friends

Sunrise drinks the morning dew
Walkin' on new cloud ground distant cowbells sound
Tall trees reach the misty blue
And all there leaves are green the shadows on a mountain stream

Dogwood and mountain laurel bloom
A welcome mat for nature's livin' room
Blue Ridge Mountains turnin' green
Wanna go home again to see my mountain friends

Nighttime gathers in the crowd
Listen to the children sing hear the banjos ring
Blue Ridge Mountain music sound
Comes from lonely hill the song of a whippoorwill

Old time fiddles that I hear
Playin' the tune that I love so dear
Blue Ridge Mountains callin' me
I wanna go home again to see my mountain friends
Blue Ridge Mountains turnin' green
