Let Me Help You Work It Out

Charley Pride

There is something in your heart weighing heavy on your mind You need gentle arms to hold you like these gentle arms of mine You need love and understanding and the shoulder you can cry on You need someone to rely on you don't have to be alone Let me help you work it out help you face the situation Count on me for consolation let me help you work it out

Let me help you work it out I'm the one who'll always care When you need me I'll be there let me help you work it out Let me help you work it out...
