

Silence

Charley Pride

Silence is four walls that hold no laughter
Silence is a phone that never rings
Silence is a hall without her footsteps
The sound of silence is destroying me.

Turn the jukebox up loud, let there be laughter
Talk to me no matter what you say
Help me drown out the sound of silence
The sound of silence that's destroying me.

Silence is two lips that never speak my name
Silence is her picture that can't talk to me
Silence is a man lost in his memories
The sound of silence is destroying me.

The sound of silence is destroying me...
