

Feeling It Now

Charlie Burg

Words, they don't mean nothing
They don't mean nothing when you tell me
That they're anything more than words
Cause you've been at the forefront of my mind
Reducing me to nothing every time

Every time

You can't understand
Anything I tell ya
You're saying I'm your man
Then you find another
I ain't got a plan
I think I'm going under
But what I said before

I'm feeling it now
(Feeling it, I'm feeling it, I'm feeling it now)

I can be your only one
And you can always ask it all to me
And parachutes will catch the fall in love
Just make sure to tell me dear
Tell me when the coast is clear
I am always waiting here for you

I'm feeling it now
(Feeling it, I'm feeling it, I'm feeling it now)
