

Warm Rain Clap

Charlie Burg

I saw you smile in another way
The way your eyes seem to live in another place
Whatever joy you give to those who know you deeper than me
Oh yeah, you're so lovely to me, yeah

Then you look at me and you tell me you've had enough
You've had enough
Cause I took love for granted
Never thought I wouldn't have it
Guess you've got another advantage
Cause I still believe in love

Then I thought to myself, what the hell, yeah
No more looking down, just get up and go find her
Cool summer night as we leap into water, yeah
Start to move on from what your love had taught us

But you're not my love, you're not mine
You say it's better now
Another love you've found
So baby take my hand, even if you understand me
Gotta find another way, gotta let you be free
Cause I still believe in love
