

An Opening

Charlie Cunningham

More than alive
More than I
If not here another time, when you like

Poised till the start
The spell of your heart
I'm not here to pick a fight
But we can if you like

Come in, they said
Come and you might
Be someone else for a while
And from there I tell you just how I
Turn the water to wine

Come in, they said
Come and you might
Be yourself by the fire
But the words daunt her eye
The stars daunt her eye
This place isn't mine

To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse into the world you wouldn't find
And you don't think it's happening

To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse into the world you try to hide
And you won't think it's happening

To see the whole thing is an opening
A glimpse into the world you wouldn't find
And you don't think it's happening