

How Much

Charlie Cunningham

Close all the doors and hope that it passes
It's all in your stripe
The space in between is tight
Brushing the line

How much should you start with?
'Cause it won't let you lie
We're all rolled in a carpet
And thrown off the side

How much should you want it?
Cut your time
Keepin' honest
It won't be your last time

I'll make you mine
And I'll make up your mind

How much should you want it?
Cut your time
Keepin' honest
It won't be your last time
