

You Sigh

Charlie Cunningham

So few cares, and ever so unprepared
My mind is still not made up

You sigh, there's so much I could have said
You tried, and keep strong
You sigh, there's so much I could have said
But I wasn't ready then, and I'm still not

You sigh, there's so much I could have said
Don't cry, all day long
You sigh, there's so much I could have said
But I wasn't ready then, and I'm still not
