

December 25th

Charlie Puth

Do you remember snow was falling down on Christmas day?
Oh, baby, I thought forever was a gift that we gave Holding you so tight by the fireplace
The list of everything that I could want written on my face
But no, 'cause Santa didn't bring me nothing but pain
So the holidays don't hit the same

Now December 25th is the day I always miss you the most
Oh, 'cause the music and the lights
It reminds me of the night
That you told me you had to go
December 25th is the day that always hurts me the most
Oh, I still got no goodbye
So I'd rather stay inside
Spending Christmas here alone

Na-la-la-la, mm-na-na-na
Ooh-ooh

I got a chill that never goes away
When the seasons change (Change)
Oh, 'cause every year when Christmas comes back around
All I do is wish you (Wish you) would've stayed

Now December 25th is the day I always miss you the most (Missin' you most)
Oh, 'cause the music and the lights (Music and the lights)
It reminds me of the night (It reminds me of the night)
That you told me you had to go
December 25th is the day that always hurts me the most (This day hurts me most)
Oh, I still got no goodbye (I still got no goodbye)
So I'd rather stay inside (So I'd rather stay inside)
Spending Christmas here alone

What a gift to kiss you once more (Kiss you once more)
Beneath the mistletoe (Beneath the mistletoe)
Waiting for you to come back, It'd be like a Christmas miracle

Now December 25th is the day I always miss you the most
Oh, 'cause the music and the lights
It reminds me of the night
That you told me you had to go
December 25th is the day that always hurts me the most (This day hurts me most)
Oh, I still got no goodbye (I still got no goodbye)
So I'd rather stay inside (So I'd rather stay inside)
Spending Christmas here alone

Christmas here alone, alone
Spending Christmas
