

The Moment

Charlie Puth

There's a moment when you find out who your true friends are
The ones who don't go by everyone else's ways
And it's important to realize who your one and true love is
And to not look back on yesterdays

Don't be askin' what this world needs now
You need to ask what makes you come alive somehow
'Cause you do you better than anyone here
So mark this as your year

Tomorrow I'm going on that train and I'm gonna pretend that it doesn't stop
'Cause I'm taking all my fears and making them my destination
Bottom all the way to the top

Don't be askin' what this world needs now
I need to see what makes me come alive somehow
'Cause I do me better than anyone here
So mark this as my year

Don't be askin' what this world needs now
I need to ask what makes you come alive somehow
'Cause I do me better than anyone here
This is my year
I have no fear, 'cause all my obstacles are clear
