

So Long

Charlie Rich

(So long, girl)

So long, now
Yeah, it's time you moved on down the track
So long, now
Yeah, go on and don't look back

Go on and shake it up, baby
Tear up the world, girl, but hear what I say
Someday, I'll get even with you, and I pray, yeah
'Til that day, it won't be so long (So long)

It's been too long, already
Ever since we been tryin' to make it, it's always been
Unsteady

So long, now
Yeah, it's past time we should say goodbye
Go on, now
There ain't no tears left to cry

Go on and rip it up, baby
Shake up the world, girl, but hear what I say
Someday, I'll get even with you, and I pray, yeah
'Til that day, it won't be so long (So long)

It's been too long, already
Ever since we been tryin' to make it, it's always been
Unsteady

So long, now
Yeah, it's past time we should say goodbye
Go on, now
There ain't no tears left to cry

Go on and rip it all, baby
Tear up the world, girl, but hear what I say
Someday, I'll get even with you, and I pray, yeah
'Til that day, it won't be so long

So long, now (So long)
So long, now (So long)
So long, now (So long)
