

Somebody Wrote That Song for Me

Charlie Rich

I heard a brand new song today
It made me think of my baby
I wonder who wrote that melody?
They must have heard the words I said
The night I hurt my baby
Somebody wrote that song for me

Now that little song said go on home and apologize now
Only a fool will set her free
You know you better, hold her and kiss those tear away
From your baby's eyes now
Somebody wrote that song for me

Somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
They wrote down every single word I said
The things I did to break your heart
And tear your world apart

Somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
And every fool who ever heard us baby
If he's lucky someday maybe
Just like me, he'll hear that song and go back home

'Cause somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
Somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
Somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
Somebody wrote that song for me
(Somebody wrote that song for me)
