

Wilderness

Charlie Winston

Wait
Check myself
Are we vacuum-packed like fish ? stocked in stores
Just wait
Upon a shelf
Swim into the rhythm of a new school
Feeling like a new fool
'Cause your life of mine
That's where it sat
On an open ocean every one has a voice
Free birds
Hover on the net
Staking claim to any free space
But you change your name, your face

We're walking into the wilderness
And there's nobody that's stopping us
Oh baby just a memory for modern minds
We're walking into the wilderness
We're gonna bear at the consequence
Everything you know will be unknown

Stay
Upgrade your view
I've got hope that i just fighting for else to refuse
Forget everything you knew
Time's no longer just a checkmate
It's a place, a frame, a space

We're walking into the wilderness
And there's nobody that's stopping us
Oh baby just a memory for modern minds
We're walking into the wilderness
We're gonna bear at the consequence
Everything you know will be unknown

We're walking into the wilderness
We're walking into the wilderness
Baby just a memory
Baby just a memory
Everything you know will be unknown
Everything you know will be unknown
Everything you know will be unknown
