

Love

Charlotte Church

When I came out from the river
When I came out from the river
When I was still small
When I was still safe
And I didn't have to contemplate

Love

When I went back to the water
And I emerged with a daughter
My arms were full of life
Life reached her arms out to cradle us
I didn't have to
I didn't have to
I didn't have to complicate

Love