

I Don't Love You

Charlotte Day Wilson

I don't love you anymore
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore
And I don't care if you look
I won't see you
I won't see you anymore

All grace to you and all power
It's your time, baby, your hour
Cheer for me and I'll cheer for you
Pray for me and I'll sing for you
I'll still sing for you

Yes, I'll listen to the unspoken
It's more peaceful being heartbroken
Than crying every night for you
I'll miss you, yes, I'll cry for you
I'll still cry for you

I don't love you anymore
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore
And I don't care if you look
I won't see you
I won't see you anymore

It's not the end, it's the beginning
You'll agree silently
Ambivalently, you say it's fine with me
That's how I know
I gotta let you go

I don't love you anymore
I don't need you
I don't need you anymore
And I don't care if you look
I won't see you
I won't see you anymore
